

BHAVAN'S SRIKRISHNA NAGAR IGNITES PATRIOTISM

SESSION 2025-26

"Bhavan's B.P. Vidya Mandir, Sri Krishna Nagar, Nagpur, ignited the spirit of freedom and patriotism as it celebrated the 79th Independence Day with unbridled enthusiasm. The ceremony commenced with the majestic hoisting of the National flag by Dr. Pankaj Chande Executive Committee Member Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan Nagpur Kendra and Chairperson SMC Bhavan's B P Vidya Mandir Srikrishna Nagar Nagpur set against the emotive backdrop of the National Anthem. The school's NCC cadets paid tribute to the National Flag with a dignified 'Rashtriya salute'.

As a token of appreciation, the chief guest was honored with a sapling by the school captains Mast. Rohan Jeswani, Miss. Vidhi Tiwari alongwith a handmade bouquet by Miss. Uttara Asare. The welcome address by Miss Bhoomi Sarda eloquently underscored the significance of this momentous day, kindling a sense of national pride. The celebration was a kaleidoscope of talent, featuring a mesmerizing symphony by B.P. Bal Mandir students, soul-stirring patriotic songs and Jugal Bandi by Vidya Mandir students, and captivating dance performances-highlighting the need for 'Digital India', a rhythmic beat showcasing 'Aatmabal' and the fabric of courage and perseverance that enthralled the audience. The inspiring trilingual speeches by Miss. Anvi Sindhwani, Miss. Swarangi Bhavik and Mast. Advait Deshmukh in English, Hindi, and Sanskrit, paid a heartfelt tribute to India's rich cultural legacy who persuasively conveyed the significance of Independence Day with clarity and passion.

The event also marked the release of the latest issue of the school's newsletter, beautifully crafted with insightful updates and testaments to hard work and dedication. The ceremony was graced by a galaxy of dignitaries, including the chief guest Dr Pankaj Chande, Smt Aarti Lanjewar, Parent Representative, Smt. Shrutika Inani, Vice Chairperson (EPTA) , Shri. Nilesh Sindhawani ,Joint Secretary (EPTA) and Principal Shri Lalit Dinkar Joshi, and other esteemed guests. The chief guest's speech was a perfect blend of heart and vision, encapsulating the spirit of Independence Day and inspiring excellence. His initiative instilled the invaluable lesson of 'Unity is Strength' and the significance of prioritizing family and 'Nation' fostering a sense of collective responsibility and patriotism.

The comperers, including Miss. Mahi Ghagwat and Miss. Suhani Chandak showcased their linguistic prowess, enhancing the event's accessibility and connecting with a diverse audience. Miss. Misha Wadekar's vote of thanks eloquently expressed gratitude to all contributors.

The triumphant celebration was a testament to the exceptional leadership and dedication of Principal Shri. Lalit Dinkar Joshi and Vice Principal Smt. Manisha Sharma, whose vision and guidance were instrumental in the event's success. The collaborative efforts of the teachers, students, and support staff came together seamlessly, exceeding expectations and delivering a truly memorable experience. The program unfolded flawlessly, showcasing the institution's commitment to excellence.

The event's smooth execution was ensured by the meticulous planning and coordination of Smt. Rita Tayde and Smt. Ujjwala Dupare.

Caption : Celebrating the Spirit of freedom & unity

